Pet of the Month:

Meet Miss Winifred; her owner is Penny Warner. Because of zoom worship, Miss Winifred is able to enjoy the warmth of her mama's lap during church and bible study. Occasionally Miss Winifred (aka Winnie) does make an appearance on the screen, but most of the time she finds a basket or warm spot to nestle into. She loves naps, treats, and snuggles with her mom. She tolerates her poodle Tera. Winnie also has a motto which she would like to share with others. She would like to remind others to "anticipate happiness" as she has taken it upon herself to show others to purr as she enters the room with anticipation of being pet (anticipating happiness). We can all learn from a cat and "anticipate happiness" in our lives as we enter new phases of our lives.

From Bishop Jung

Soul Food: This I Pray and Offer as Resolutions for the Church in the New Year

“My people will live in peaceful dwelling places, in secure homes, in undisturbed places of rest.” (Isaiah 32:18)

A Threshold for True Harmony

As we pass through the threshold of 2022, we prayerfully and completely entrust this year to the Lord.

From our trust and even through our frailty, may God liberate humankind from the chains of pandemic and restore us to even healthier days.

Health arrives as a gift and a deep reception of our mutual dependence: we must all be saved together to achieve our complete and entire salvation.

As we pass through the eye of this needle into God’s newness, we cross humbly, and acknowledge that a world of creation that is dependent on one another requires that we live together by moments of chosen mutuality and into places that can only be pursued on a path of love and harmony.

Honest love and respect for our neighbor exalts them above ourselves. This is the agape of neighborliness proclaimed by the Gospel.

In a world where even one person suffers from their dignity rejected, discrimination chooses evil forces that break the balance of God’s intended harmony and damages the beautiful tapestry of life. From this we must repent.

We believe that the church’s mission is to fully give and devote itself to this kind of respect and love. This is God’s self-giving poured into each moment of creative transformation, Christ in us.

Our Inner Work of Confession and Worship

As we reflect on our inner journey and pass into the threshold of 2022, I would ask us how we might restore such love and respect as a priority for Christians. I hope that we will confess our failings before God completely and worship the Lord with the simple practice of loving and respecting the lives God presents us, that we might demonstrate our neighborliness in each day.

I trust that our existence can be filled with such love and respect, that we will come to think together that the holiness that illuminates our surroundings is the simple and good life of our choosing.

Let us begin with a critical look at the hubris of our time when the church cared only for the vanity of a false sovereignty, imperialistic mental frames, and the trappings of dominance.

We must remember that Jesus sides with the weak not out of mere sympathy, but God’s divine reorganization and reclamation of the creation order.

This gospel has power to lift children, to relieve the pain of the poor—this is a gospel that frees the smallest life from oppression and rejects systems of discrimination and patterns of prejudice.

I believe only pure and humble love is the essence of life.

Walking in Beloved-ness

God, help us to become a church that unites around this strength of meekness.

God, help us bring together a church that does not allow the evil of racism for even a single moment, finds those who are always lost and in trouble. Grant that we may befriend the lonely, and generously serve those in need of help. Make us courageous in our practice of the love of Christ.

May 2022 be a year in which we again focus our attention on God and unite with one another in diligence and watchfulness, that we might leave alienation on the altar and walk in unity as our worship.

I sincerely hope that this year will be a year of wide and generous love in the common dreams and beloved-ness of being children of God, with acceptance and even neighborly respect for differences.

I pray that the Lord’s blessings overflow to you.

Christmas for Children

We have had a very busy and fulfilling December. We have just completed our 28th year of Christmas for Children in Clear Lake. On behalf of the Christmas for Children Committee, we would like to say thank you so much for your support to our program. We are so proud and humbled to be a part of a community that is so supportive and generous.

We could not do this program successfully without the help and support from your donation. We use this money to buy clothes, coats, boots, and other gifts for the children who are in need.

This year we helped 25 families, (72 children). Every child gets clothes (which is only possible with your donations). And, of course, every child receives toys, games, or something fun for them.

Each family also gets a large food box from the Lifeline Food Pantry. We thank all of you for helping us to make this a better Christmas for these families.

Merry Christmas, and we wish you God's Peace and Blessings in 2022.

Christmas for Children
Clear Lake United Methodist Church

Clear Lake Sunday School

We meet after the children's sermon during regular 11:00 am services. We will meet once a month on Wednesdays after school from 3:30-5:00 pm at the church for a fun night and lesson. On December 15th we practiced our program and shopped for our mission gifts. We made Christmas treats and enjoyed pizza together. On Wednesday evening Jan. 19th we met and studied the Parable of the Lost Sheep, made a little sheep, shared our skit on the Good Samaritan with Pastor and crew, made and addressed cards to send to shut ins and nursing home residents and enjoyed a pizza supper.

Our next Wednesday evening will be February 23rd from 3:15-5pm.

Faith Family Ad. Board Highlights:

At our Ad Board meeting we discussed having a service to recognize our new members. We are planning to do our annual valentine boxes for people that are less likely to get out and about. Thank you to those that helped to get them together and distributed. We have a lot to be thankful for this year and we would also like to thank our snow plow fairy along with Greg for plowing. Thank you to those that took down the Christmas tree and everyone that has shoveled. We discussed a worship safety plan to keep our members and pastor safe. The discussion included recommending the use of wearing N95 and KN95 masks as these are recommended by the CDC, socially distancing, masks, pulpit fill options, utilizing zoom, etc. We encouraged our leaders of the church to attend the leadership meeting on January 22nd held by our district on zoom (this has been recorded so others will be able to watch at their convenience). Paul mentioned having Trobby speak to our congregations about his mission work. We also need to lift up our neighbor who lost heat and her house flooded, those that we have lost in this last year, those suffering with COVID, natural disasters, and the many life changes that this past year has brought. May 2022 be a blessing to all with God in our hearts and minds.

Heather Greene (Ad Board Chair).
